

Jennifer Schultes
<http://art.ting-ting.com>
514-935-7785 | jen@ting-ting.com

EXHIBITIONS, ETC

08.08 – 09.08
The Long Christmas Ride Home
Stage West, Fort Worth, TX
Created award-winning* shadow puppets for theatre show
*Dallas-Fort Worth Theater Critics Forum Awards

09.16.07
Group Show: The Kindness of Strangers
Helm Gallery, Tacoma Washington

11.30.06
Soiree d'art de St-Henri
Open door evening for St-Henri artists and galleries
Montreal, Quebec

10.06.03 – 10.10.04
Montreal Group of Found Art Enthusiasts
Founder

09.15.00
Group Show: Festival of Sticky Things
Canal and Allen, Lower East Side, NYC

95
Short Attention Span Film Festival
Chicago, San Francisco, New York

EMPLOYMENT

08.96 – present
TiNG-TiNG Design | Founder/Designer/Developer
print and web site design and development for artists, entrepreneurs, and social justice organizations (client list available upon request)

08.96 – 05.97
Rutgers University | Instructor: Introduction to Computer Art
Teaching Assistantship: curriculum development and classroom instruction for undergraduate course in MS Word, QuarkXPress, Photoshop, Illustrator, HTML, and basic Web production

EDUCATION

Rutgers University
MFA Visual Arts, Spring 1997

University of Texas at Austin
BFA Studio Art, Fall 1994
BA English, Fall 1994

Curriculum Vitae

Although a designer by day, Jennifer Schultes has been making art for as long as she can remember. Her current passion is using recycled materials to create objects and art. As an artist, she has exhibited in New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Austin and Montreal, as well as the World Wide Web. You can hear her play flute with the local anarchist marching band the Chaotic Insurrection ensemble at Montreal demonstrations, protests and community events. Jennifer Schultes completed a Masters degree in Fine Arts with a focus on New Media at Rutgers University. She also holds a B.A. in English and a B.F.A. in Studio Art from the University of Texas at Austin.